

Storytelling Festival

Do you love telling stories?

You should sign up for the Three Falls Storytelling Festival!

3rd - 5th graders can participate by memorizing a story or a short story book and presenting it to their class. Teachers pick the top 2 storytellers to present to the school judges in October. The top 8 participants go to the district competition during the first week of November.

Pick up an application from your teacher and start reading today!