In WCSD, we will always stop bullying, harassment, or teasing that is meant to hurt someone.

Zero Tolerance

Mean names, words, or pictures are not allowed about someone's skin color, where they come from, their beliefs, or if they have physical or mental disabilities.

Zero Tolerance

- Speak Up and Seek Help: Reach out to parents, counselors, teachers, or trusted adults if you or someone else is being harassed or bullied.
- Be an Ally: Support victims, stand up against harassment and bullying, and promote treating everyone with kindness and respect.
- Online Safety: Use the internet responsibly and report online harassment or bullying.
